

The pink circle is the face of the button, anything past the it will be tucked in behind the pinback.

Please keep any important information within the pink circle, but feel free to extend your images past the pink circle to create a bleed edge.

Make sure all images are 300 DPI and embedded. And all text should be outline or created to curves.

